

City of Gothenburg

Develop one of Gothenburg's most attractive locations with us

Land allocation for the property; Circus Lorensberg

Jahja Zeqiraj (S), chairman Property Committee
Magnus Sigfusson, Director, Property Management Administration

The area of Lorensberg will become a part of a viable and sustainable city

Lorensberg - an area to be built closer to the inner city

- The location Circus Lorensberg is strategically located in central Gothenburg
- One area that awaits a big 'transformation – several major urban development projects planned

Now the City of Gothenburg announces the land allocation for the property; Circus Lorensberg

- Land allocation for property Lorensberg 706:32
- Today the land allocation competition are announced!
A local information meeting will be hold in Gothenburg on the 22 of March at 6 pm

”Cirkustomten” – a unique meeting place where cultural and tourist areas meet

- Over the past two centuries, the area has been an attractive meeting point with restaurants, circus, theatre and hotel.
- The City Library is currently the area’s most monumental institution making the area rich in culture life

How will the area become a special place that contributes to the already planed development for the city?

- Together we build the city – we want to develop the area together with you

What is the City of Gothenburg's plan for the spot?

- Which are the requirements to receive the land allocation?

Which are the requirements to receive the land allocation?

What are the City of Gothenburg's requirements for this land allocation?

Time plan:

- Today the land allocation competition is announced
- On the 22 of March a local information meeting will be hold in Gothenburg at 4.30pm
- 21 March - 29 April is the application period for the land allocation
- The applications will be evaluated during May
- The Property Committee have the ambition to reach a decision before summer break

Would you like to know more about the land allocation?

City of Gothenburg

Read more at: www.goteborg.se/markanvisning

For further information in english, please contact the Property Management Administration, City of Gothenburg or visit our web:
www.goteborg.se/markanvisning

City of
Gothenburg

Thank you for your attention!
Feel free to ask your questions